Richard Whittington
Software Engineer

SUMMARY

A creative and experienced software engineer who has personally witnessed technology's ability to change people's lives. Proven track record of creating, designing and implementing successful front-end and back-end web applications. Looking to contribute my skills to a product team involved in exciting projects.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Software Engineer at 100devs, Remote

October 2020 — Present

- Collaborated with a team of developers to design, develop, and deploy modern semantically structured and responsive MERN stack web applications using industry best practices, ensuring code efficiency and maintainability..
- Applied agile methodologies, specifically SCRUM, for effective project management.
- Contributed to the optimization of application performance, resulting in improved user experiences and client satisfaction.

Freelance Full Stack Web Developer | Memphis, TN

December 2014 — Present

Successfully crafted and delivered a variety of full-stack web applications and static websites for diverse clients, ranging from small businesses to medium-sized enterprises. Implemented tailored solutions that met the unique needs of clients, ensuring a seamless and intuitive user experience. Maintained a high level of client satisfaction through effective communication and delivering MERN stack projects within specified timelines. Demonstrated versatility by adapting to various project requirements and technologies.

Social Media Marketing Specialist for Stratosphere NYC Agency | NYC

September 2013 — December 2014

Formulated and executed a comprehensive brand management strategy and communications campaign, significantly expanding the reach of our clients. Oversaw a remarkable 37% growth in new client acquisition during the tenure. Led content creation initiatives, producing engaging and compelling material to enhance brand visibility and engagement.

Current Projects:

BarkAmigos (Fullstack Web App) – Spearheading the development of a full-stack web application that facilitates connections among dog owners. This will enable local owners to coordinate and enjoy walks with their dogs, fostering a sense of community among pet enthusiasts.

VOLUNTEERING

Code Connector | Memphis, TN

May 2023 — Present

Actively participating in a diverse range of both in-person and virtual meetups aimed at assisting early-career developers in connecting with the broader technology community. Facilitating knowledge sharing and fostering a supportive environment for networking among participants.

GiveCamp Memphis | Memphis, TN

February 2023 — Present

Collaborated with a team of dedicated technology professionals to enhance the digital presence of a local nonprofit, The Wellness and Stress Clinic of Memphis. Contributed to strategic discussions and provided technical insights to for the revamped Wordpress website that not only showcases the clinic's services effectively but also facilitates a smoother (UI) user experience for both clients and potential donors.

CONTACT

901.871.3936

richardwhittingtondev.netlify.app/

github.com/kilted2000

richardlwhittington@gmail.com

@RichardWhitDev

linkedin.com/in/richardwhittingtonse/

SKILLS

Javascript

JQuery

Bootstrap

React

Next.JS

Embedded Javascript

Node

Express

MongoDB

Mongoose

REST APIs

Git

Web Accessibility

EDUCATION

University of Memphis

B.A. History (Hons)